

2016 JUNIORS PLEASE READ

In helping to make the decision as to whether to participate in the March of the Living as a Junior in 2016 or as a Senior in 2017, please note the following:

AP exams are always the first two weeks of May. The March of the Living has been approved by the College Board as an eligible reason for deferring an AP to the dates designated by the College Board (usually during the 3rd week of May).

The dates for 2016 March of the Living are May 1 – 15, 2016. Note these dates fall during both weeks of AP testing. In addition, in considering your decision, remember that many activities, including previews at Florida colleges (and perhaps others), as well as other school functions may take place beginning mid - May.

We bring this information to your attention so that you can make an informed choice for your participation. Remember, the discussion and ultimate decision should be between you and your family after consultation with any professionals you deem appropriate.
